MELVIN GEORGE II is "The King of Smooth!" Tall, lean, bespectacled and armed with a brazen sense of "cool," Melvin made his comedy debut in his hometown of Boston and soon after moved on to a successful career in New York City. A trained actor and director, Melvin used his theatrical training as a member of The Kitchen Table Comedy Team making appearances at Carnegie Hall and The Village Gate. He has appeared in concert with such celebrated artists as Aretha Franklin, Chaka Khan, Gladys Knight, Donna Summer, Roberta Flack, Patti LaBelle, Stephanie Mills, Ashford & Simpson, Natalie Cole, Diana Ross, The Temptations, The Four Tops, Smokey Robinson and Isaac Hayes to name a few.

He has been seen in the films Mo' Better Blues Spike Lee, The Meteor Man Robert Townsend and Behind the Smile Damon Wayans. Melvin has appearances on HBO, Showtime, and on several Fox and A&E shows. Over the years, Melvin has been nominated for several National Campus Entertainment Awards for comedy among colleges.
